THE GAY AND LESBIAN BLIND ARE OUT AND STRONG

This coalition group of blind lesbians and gay men organized in May of this year out of a need to come together around the circumstances, problems and responsibilities inherent in the double-minority position encountered by blind women and men with same-sex orientation.

The most glaring problem facing us is the inaccessibility of lesbian and gay literature to blind readers. Our solution is a library of book and magazine titles to be recorded on cassette by volunteer readers. The bulk of G.A.L.B. weekly meetings (held in Suite 502 of the Gay and Lesbian Services Center: 110 East 23rd St., N.Y. 10010) centers on this project. Anyone interested in reading for our library or contacting us for any other reason (we encourage sighted visitors at our meetings) may write to the above address or drop by the Center any Sunday afternoon between four and six. We also have a hot-line courtesy of the Gay Switchboard at 212-777-7697. Members of Gay and Lesbian Blind staff this line on Friday and Sunday evenings between six and nine p.m., and messages are taken by Gay Switchboard volunteers at other times.

Blind lesbians and gay men have resolved to fight oppression and prejudice collectively and with the highest possible consciousness, making our double minority into a positive force in the gay and feminist communities.
